Slow manifolds organising mixed-mode dynamics

Bernd Krauskopf\textsuperscript{*1}, Hinke Osinga\textsuperscript{1}, and Jose Mujica\textsuperscript{1}

\textsuperscript{1}Department of Mathematics, The University of Auckland – New Zealand

Abstract

This talk will discuss some mechanisms that give rise to mixed-mode oscillations in slow-fast systems with at least two slow variables. The focus will be on how attracting and repelling slow manifolds interact: locally to create small-amplitude oscillations and globally to give rise to large-amplitude excursions and reinjection.

\textsuperscript{*}Speaker