
An amazingly efficient L^2 -estimate in reaction-diffusion systems

Michel Pierre^{*1}

¹ENS Rennes and IRMAR – Ecole normale supérieure de Rennes – France

Abstract

We will recall how a simple L^2 -estimate for a linear parabolic operator with discontinuous coefficients turns out to be a very powerful tool to solve several questions arising in reaction-diffusion systems. We will list relevant applications and discuss several extensions.

*Speaker